THE GATHERING

OUTDOOR SCULPTURE INSTALLATION
JONATHAN HERTZEL

James A. Michener Art Museum ~ Doylestown
April 2 through June 26, 2005

Bucks County sculptor Jonathan Hertzel works largely in bronze, making abstract sculptures that relate to the structures and processes of life. "The Gathering" is a collection of recent works, which in his words: "feels both timeless and timely, reflecting something of a moral anxiety produced by the elusive political and social realities that surround us today." Hertzel trained at the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts and Alfred University. His work has been exhibited at the Woodmere Art Museum and the State Museum of Pennsylvania
